

Permissions

The library (resource center, etc.) that purchases this curriculum agrees to use it for its intended purpose only.

As owner of this library edition (as opposed to general edition) of this curriculum, the library (resource center, etc.) is granted a license to loan it out to congregations, one congregation at a time. The CD and/or the DVD may not be copied in whole or in part.

Each congregation borrowing this curriculum is granted permission these permissions during the time it is borrowed from the library (resource center, etc.):

- The printed version of the pdf "Lesson Plans" file on the CD that comes with this curriculum may only be copied as needed for the teacher(s) of the class.
- The printed versions (regular print and large print) of the pdf "Reader" files on the CD that comes with this curriculum may only be copied in sufficient quantities to allow each class participant to have a copy, and may not be sold. Because this is a copyrighted volume, it should be bound in some way (put in a notebook, spiral bound, etc.).
- Other pdf files included on the CD (usually handouts) may only be copied in sufficient quantities to allow each class participant to have a copy.
- Students may keep their Readers and handouts, but should be told that they should be treated like any copyrighted materials.
- The video presentations (on the DVD that comes with this curriculum) may only be used when teaching this curriculum.
- The CD and/or the DVD may not be copied in whole or in part.

These permissions are not transferable.
